

Please don't lift the cross ownership ban. The ban prevents people like Rupert Murdoch, who only care about making a fast buck and nothing about freedom, from controlling what the American public can see and hear. It would be an egregious blow against everyone's freedom and in it's way as awful an attack against democracy as the events of Sept.11 2001.